

Hey,

While a picture says a thousand words, sometimes words are still useful to provide some context!

Lillvillan, used as a bakery back in the day, has over time been converted into a lovely little cottage suitable for up to 4 people. While it is the oldest building in our venue, fresh renovations were carried out in the beginning of the year to bring this 1900s gem back into its full glory!

There are few things finer than sipping a glass of wine while listening to the crackling of live fire. Our living room features a functional fireplace, a couch, plants, and decorations. There is no TV or PlayStation, but I guess you could always use your phone with our Wi-Fi if you forgot your book at home...

There is a moment in every party when all the people find themselves in the kitchen. We do not know why this happens, but we are ready for it. The kitchen is equipped with everything needed to make dinner or breakfast, and a vintage table to eat it behind of. The round(ish) table is also perfect for when you need to have a little Uno or Yahtzee tournament.

If you are feeling lazy about cooking, it is possible to convince our chef Juho to help you out with the dinner and breakfast!

There is a bedroom upstairs for 2 persons, and 2 more beds in the "half room" leading into the main bedroom: a total of 4 can spend the night in Lillvillan.

A great thing about Lillvillan is all the options it has to offer outside!

The wood fired sauna with the excellent IKI-kiuas makes for a great sauna experience. An outdoor jacuzzi only adds to the relaxation. Besides that, the Kota is perfect for an evening grill. Every venue is connected by a newly built wooden terrace that also has some seating options to enjoy the short but sweet Finnish summer.

More...

While Lillvillan is suited for up to 4 people to spend the night, it is very possible to use the facilities for slightly bigger happenings. The jacuzzi fits around 4 people at the same time, the sauna would fit up to 12 people (it depends how friendly you are with each other!) and the terrace area itself could host 20 people as a standing cocktail-party themed evening.

There are 10 seats in Lillvillan divided between the kitchen and livingroom.
